

A New Paradigm in M&A

We put people first.

The Ascend Way

At Ascend, we think outside the transaction to the people behind it, providing buy-side and sell-side advisory services to high-growth companies and institutional investors in the middle market. Be it clients, employees, or prospects, our team believes in humanizing investment banking and the engagement process. We place a high value on operating with integrity, maintaining good relationships, and simply doing the right thing...all while driving value with a sophisticated, data-driven approach.

Flexing for the Journey

Businesses undergo constant transformation from startup to exit. Ascend has the unique ability to flex in any direction to deliver the type of advisory needed in any situation. Our team provides guidance through every step of an engagement and is there for the entire journey. While engagements span various industries and sizes, our primary focus is efficient, flawless execution.

Buy-Side

Platform, add-on, and roll-up strategies or PEGs, strategics, and sponsor-backed companies

Sell-Side

Minority, majority, and full sale transaction types for companies, founders, and financial sponsors

Expertise & Representative Transactions

Our team provides clients with a level of understanding and insider knowledge to optimize results. We focus on sectors where we have deep networks and high levels of investment experience. Our sector expertise and institutional background unleashes value by helping clients anticipate hurdles thereby increasing efficiency. M&A advisory with an edge.
